France's Picture-Book Provinces

Come home from one of our tours of Normandy and Brittany and you'll tell everyone you know about the day you walked to Mont-St.-Michel. The cathedral-capped island floats on water—at least until the epic tide recedes to reveal the sandy seabed. Then, as the faithful have done for centuries, we'll have the unique opportunity to explore one of France's most glorious landmarks on foot. True, the provinces of Brittany and Normandy have their apple orchards and salt-meadow sheep flocks and picture-book villages deep in the woods. And we've planned beautiful walks among them. But like the people and history of this region, we always seem to come back to the sea. To explore coastlines that have seen invasions from Iron Age Celts to D-Day's Allied Forces. To stroll in quaint ports that launched the Norman conquest of the British Isles. And to feast in restaurants where great platters of fresh oysters, lobsters and Coquilles St.-Jacques are standard fare. So much beauty, in the shadow of so much history, warmed by a lively hospitality makes this a truly unforgettable journey.

DAY 1

---

ST. MALO / CANCALE

- Visit a family-run oyster farm for a tasting
- Enjoy a scenic coastal walk from the fishing port of Cancale

After meeting in seaside St. Malo, we follow the coast to the fishing port of Cancale. Located opposite the bay from Mont-St.-Michel, this small town is famous for its oyster-farming center, and we'll pay a visit to a family-run oyster farm and enjoy a taste of this local delicacy.

Nourished with our first taste of French coastal cuisine, we set out on an afternoon walk that leads us along a scenic footpath from Pointe du Grouin, with excellent views of Mont-St.-Michel Bay and the Chausey Islands.

This evening we gather again for a festive welcome dinner.

Overnight: St. Malo

Meals: D

DAY 2

---

ST. MALO / DINAN

- Join a walking exploration of St. Malo
- Enjoy a hands-on cooking instruction
- Wander the medieval lanes of Dinan

Our morning starts in St. Malo, a bustling 6th-century seaport that was once a haven for merchants, sailors and explorers. Local pirates, known as Corsairs, once received a special license from the King of France to pursue their trade without fear of being hung. Our walk takes us along the narrow, cobbled streets of the old town to the 1-1/2 mile long ramparts that surround the walled town. From the Saint Vincent Gate (Porte St. Vincent) to the Saint Thomas Gate (Porte St. Thomas), every inner wall is packed with history and beautiful views of the Bay of St. Malo

Late morning, we visit Saint Suliac, a pretty village overlooking the Rance River. Our first stop is a crêperie where we've arranged a private cooking instruction of this Breton specialty. We enjoy the fruits of our labors by dining on the crêpes and galettes for lunch, before taking a walk with breathtaking views of the Rance River. Following our walk, we head south to Dinan, for a guided tour of one of the best-preserved medieval towns in Brittany. Its timbered houses are built on stilts that rise from its old port. Late afternoon, we return to St. Malo. Tonight, choose from one of the many wonderful restaurants recommended by your guide in St. Malo.

Overnight: St. Malo

Meals: B, L

DAY 3

---

MONT ST. MICHEL

- Discover the Bay of Mont-St.-Michel on foot
- Explore an island and monastery

We depart this morning after breakfast for Mont-St.-Michel, one of the most dramatic and awe-inspiring sights in France. The monastery was founded in 708 when the Archangel Michael appeared to Aubert, the bishop of Avranches. Taking more than 500 years to build, this island-abbey is perched on a 264-foot rock a few hundred yards off the coast.

Our arrival in Mont-St.-Michel allows time for an in-depth exploration of the ramparts and abbey, including La Merveille, one of Europe's most important Gothic monuments, and the 11th-century Romanesque and Gothic abbey church. We'll also have the unique opportunity to explore the Bay of Mont-St.-Michel on foot in the company of our local expert guide.

Note: Due to the tides, our walk in the Bay of Mont-St.-Michel may take place in the morning, mid-morning or afternoon.

Overnight: Port-en-Bessin

Meals: B

DAY 4

---

D-DAY BEACHES

- Walk the D-Day beaches, including Arromanches and Pointe du Hoc

- Visit the American Cemetery

After breakfast we set out for the D-Day beaches, where on June 6, 1944, Normandy made its mark in history and became the battleground for one of the greatest military operations of our time. We begin the day with a visit to Arromanches, with ruins of the artificial harbor built in only 15 days in 1944, as well as German bunkers that remain sprinkled throughout the peaceful landscape. From here we visit Pointe du Hoc, which features the most spectacular scenery along the coast as well as a cliff-top observatory and German machine-gun posts. During the invasion, U.S. Rangers attempted a siege of the German-occupied cliffs by using grappling hooks and ladders borrowed from London fire departments. We explore the German bunkers and bomb craters that remain: a moonscape that dramatically illustrates the fierce fighting.

Later, a short drive takes us to the American cemetery and memorial, with time to walk along the peaceful beaches where American soldiers waded to shore. Take time to explore the memorial and walk through the cemetery filled with marble crosses and Stars of David, filmed in the opening scene of Saving Private Ryan. From here, we'll have an opportunity to walk along Omaha beach—where some of the fiercest fighting took place. After we return to our hotel you have the option to explore the 30-acre park and terraced French gardens or relax poolside with a glass of wine.

Meals: B, L, D

DAY 5

---

BAYEUX / PAYS D'AUGE

- See the Bayeux Tapestry up close
- Walk the scenic Pays d'Auge countryside

Our morning begins in Bayeux, the first town liberated during the Battle of Normandy, and most famously, home to the Bayeux Tapestry. Dating to 1067, the 230-foot-long tapestry depicts the decisive Battle of Hastings, when William of Normandy conquered England in 1066. Its impressive size along with its artistic and historical merits make the embroidered tapestry a world-renowned masterpiece.

Late morning a short drive takes us to the Pays d'Auge—classic Normandy countryside lushly woven with fields, wooded valleys, cider orchards, dairy farms, manor houses and quaint villages. Here we visit a family owned distillery to taste Calvados, the legendary apple brandy. At a quaint restaurant, we pause for a tasting of local cheeses, cider and teurgoule, a Norman dessert similar to rice pudding. Later, a countryside walk from Beuvron-en-Auge, a small town with half-timbered houses, takes us to a horse farm where we watch the famous Norman horses being trained.

Later in the afternoon, we journey northeast along Normandy's coast and countryside to Honfleur.

Overnight: Honfleur

Meals: B, L, D

DAY 6

---

HONFLEUR / DEAUVILLE

- Enjoy a guided walk around beautiful Honfleur, the birthplace of impressionism painting
- Wander the traditional market and the art galleries

Nearby Honfleur is one of Normandy's most charming towns. A walk around the town takes us through half-timber houses and cobbled streets to the old dock (Vieux Bassin), which still attracts artists as it did in the days of Boudin. The original fishing boats have been replaced with yachts, but the slender buildings lining the quays make for unforgettable views. We continue on to Place Ste. Catherine where a traditional market is still held on the weekend, and walk up to Côte de Grâce. Here we have a magnificent view of the town where Impressionism was born, before taking time to browse the galleries and shops that line the streets.

We part company at the Deauville train station where you may catch trains back to Paris.

Meals: B

ENJOY THE UNEXPECTED

When you travel with Classic Journeys, you can expect handcrafted surprises built into every trip, but some things just can't be anticipated. Unusual weather, a once-a-year festival or an unscheduled site closing will inspire us and your local guide to improvise and modify this itinerary. Likewise, the hotels named here are used on the majority of our trips, but occasionally one of them can't accommodate us. If that happens, you can count on us to let you know before departure and make sure you're in a hotel of equal or better quality. It's our goal to make your trip exceptional!

**Any discount offered cannot be combined with other offers, and only applies to published (regularly scheduled public) departure dates in our catalogs or on our website.
