Catalonia & the Mediterranean Coast

On a recent Barcelona tour, when we asked our guides how to describe Catalonia to you, they surprised us. "Tell them we are Tuscany, only better." We'll admit they have a point. Spain's easternmost province is a sensory revelation that easily equals the best of Italy. The olive groves, the cypress trees that pierce the horizon like leafy exclamation points, and the perched stone villages all shimmer in the region's incredible light. The aromas of the local markets and the fresh Mediterranean air along the Costa Brava remind you how rich the world really is. And stimulated by walks in rustic countryside or on the cosmopolitan avenues on a cultural tour of Barcelona, your sense of taste will be more than satisfied by the vivid flavors of Catalan cuisine. With all due respect to our guides, this Spain tour offers so much that Tuscany can't—paths through a park full of extinct volcanoes...a dip in the sea at your private resort...and quirky Art Nouveau architecture that's a unique trait of this proud region's DNA. If you have already enjoyed time in Southern Europe's other favorite regions but don't want to repeat yourself, make this your next destination. We promise you won't be disappointed!

DAY 1

BARCELONA

- Explore the Gothic Quarter on a leisurely walk
- Guided visit to La Sagrada Familia
- Celebrate over a festive welcome dinner with sea views

Barcelona is one of Europe's most beautiful and distinctive cities, as you'll see on a leisurely walk from your hotel through the city's medieval heart, the Gothic Quarter. You feel as if you've literally stepped back into time in the maze of tightly packed medieval streets.

How long does it take to build one of those multi-spired basilicas that tower over so many European cities? The answer is still to come in Barcelona. Your exploration continues with a visit to La Sagrada Familia where the first stone was laid in 1882 (and you'll get a glimpse of the construction that continues to this day). It's just one of the landmark designs of the architect Antonio Gaudí that you'll encounter as you roam Barcelona.

This evening, you'll stroll to dinner along the Marina. Your welcome feast is at an elegant restaurant with wonderful sea views and fresh local dishes.

Overnight: Barcelona

Meals: D

DAY 2

BARCELONA / RUPIT

- Enjoy a country walk past gray and pink stone farmhouses to a dramatic waterfall
- Visit the medieval town of Besalu
- Relax at our historic villa with panoramic views

This morning, you leave behind Barcelona for a drive to the village of Rupit, located in the rolling hills of Northern Catalonia. Here, you have the option to explore the picturesque village or join your guide for a remarkably scenic waterside walk to a dramatic waterfall. Along the way, you'll see how various Mediterranean cultures have influenced the land. Scattered across the hills, masias (farmhouses) built of local pink and gray stone.

After lunch in Rupit, you'll continue on to the town of Besalu, famous for its bridge, mikveh, and a 10th-century Romanesque church perched on top of a cliff surrounded by nature.

The climax of the afternoon is the arrival at your four-star hotel in the heart of the province of Girona. It's a remarkable home for the next two nights.

Overnight: Ollers, Girona

Meals: B, D

DAY 3

SANTA PAU / FIGUERES

- Go for a scenic forest stroll to Croscat volcano
- Visit a local potter's workshop in Santa Pau
- Linger at the Dalí Museum on an afternoon visit

Your invigorating day begins with a drive to Garrotxa Volcanic Park, Europe's largest region of extinct volcanoes. A walk through an unusual beech tree forest offers great views of Croscat volcano – the youngest and highest volcano in the Iberian Peninsula.

Your walk continues to the medieval village of Santa Pau, including a special invitation into a local potter's workshop. From here you'll continue to Figueres. The region's most famous son was Salvador Dalí, and this afternoon we visit his hometown. There's time for a relaxed visit to the Dalí museum, which the artist personally designed and decorated. Having already spent some time along the coastline of the Costa Brava, it's easy enough to see how Dalí's surreal paintings actually reflect this dramatic landscape.

The country air is good for the appetite, so you won't be disappointed as you enjoy dinner at an 18th-century Catalan style farmhouse serving local specialties such as onion quiche, marinated red peppers and duck.

Overnight: Ollers, Girona

Meals: B, D

DAY 4

EMPORDÀ / GIRONA

- Explore the medieval towns of Empordà on foot
- Visit the ancient walled town of Girona
- Relax at your coastal hotel with views of the Costa Brava

This morning, a short drive leads to the starting point of a peaceful walk in the Empordà region. Along the way, you'll see a 10th-century chapel and enjoy the shade of a forest of cork oak and pine carpeted in rosemary, lavender and rock-rose leading to an ancient water-mill.

Delightfully hidden, except to the locals, you'll explore the ancient walled city of Girona with its narrow streets, and rows of pastel-colored houses leaning over the banks of the River Onyar. The Jewish community was a robust part of the town until their expulsion in 1492. But even today, El Call is one of the best-preserved Jewish quarters in the world. You'll hear about that heritage on a leisurely walk that also takes you past the 13th-century cathedral, the Romanesque baths, and along the Passeig Arqueològic, where you get an astounding view of the Charlemagne Tower.

Later in the day, you'll be well primed for arrival at our luxurious coastal hotel where you can swim in the pool, stretch out on the beach or explore the nearby villas and seaside mansions. If you're so inclined, join your guide for a walk along the coastal trails for your first glimpse of the Costa Brava.

Overnight: Platja d'Aro, Girona

Meals: B, D

DAY 5

EMPÚRIES

- Explore fine Greco-Roman ruins overlooking the sea at Empúries
- Visit the medieval town of Pals

A scenic morning walk leads to the fabulous Greek and Roman ruins of Empúries, a city built by Greek merchants on the Mediterranean seashore more than 25 centuries ago, and later occupied by the Roman legions. In both the Greek and the Roman sites, you can admire the layouts of public and private houses, some with amazingly well-preserved floors with Roman mosaics, the outline of the main streets lined with shops, public baths, gardens and temples; all surrounded by huge city walls.

As you explore with your guide, and with the blue Mediterranean in the backdrop, the ruins grow in your imagination into the great city it once was, when Europe and the world were still taking shape.

After your time in Empúries you'll visit perhaps the best preserved mediaval town of Pals, perched on a hill, surrounded by rice fields where some of the best paella rice is cultivated.

Overnight: Platja d'Aro, Girona

Meals: B

DAY 6

COSTA BRAVA

- Marvel at the beauty of Cap Roig Botanical Garden
- Enjoy a wine tasting at a local winery
- Shop in a 10th-century town, lounge on the beach or linger on the hotel terraces
- Toast your week during our festive farewell dinner

This entire day is dedicated to exploring the coastal villages that dot the Costa Brava, and taking in the breathtaking sea views, cliffs and coves. You begin in Cap Roig where the castle and its lush botanical garden was the fairy-tale creation of a Russian architect and his aristocratic English wife. They thought this spot overlooking the Mediterranean was the best place on earth for their dream home, and even today you'll agree. If you've ever walked the Cinque Terre, you'll feel right at home here. The path takes in white sand beaches, secluded coves ringed by umbrella pines, and hillside villas painted in glowing ochre and cream. Along the way, you'll pause in Calella, a red-tiled fishing village with a simple white church tower.

Just in time for a leisurely lunch, you'll find yourself on a crescent-shaped bay hugged by the small village of Llafranc. Then it's off to a local winery before returning to your resort hotel for an evening in the relaxed tempo of this seaside land.

ENJOY THE UNEXPECTED

When you travel with Classic Journeys, you can expect handcrafted surprises built into every trip, but some things just can't be anticipated. Unusual weather, a once-a-year festival or an unscheduled site closing will inspire us and your local guide to improvise and modify this itinerary. Likewise, the hotels named here are used on the majority of our trips, but occasionally one of them can't accommodate us. If that happens, you can count on us to let you know before departure and make sure you're in a hotel of equal or better quality. It's our goal to make your trip exceptional!

Any discount offered cannot be combined with other offers, and only applies to published (regularly scheduled public) departure dates in our catalogs or on our website.
